

Welcome Page

Enabled by default, the Welcome page is the first page you'll see when you start an evaluation session. This page can be customized by a project manager, which can help to inform participants about aspects of the decision.

---